Central Texas Tres Dias Sponsor Responsibilities

Sponsorship begins and ends on your knees in prayer. It is very important to seek God's wisdom as a Tres Dias sponsor. It is more than asking, signing in, and picking up your candidate. Sponsorship is praying, serving and encouraging your candidate before, during and after the weekend. It involves a sacrificial commitment by you on behalf of another. As a sponsor, you have the wonderful privilege of serving Him by helping another grow in the grace of God.

Before the Weekend

- Pray for and with your candidate
- Discuss general weekend topics and answer questions posed by your candidate
- Complete and mail all forms required
- Gather and deliver palanca letters for your candidate
- Discuss weekend fee with your candidate (who will pay?)
- Insure your candidate understands the weekend is cloistered (no phone calls, pages, texts, etc.)
- Provide transportation to/from weekend for your candidate
- Stay with your candidate through "Send Off"
- Be an encourager and helper to your candidate
- Share the Tres Dias Statement of Belief (on separate page), so that your candidate knows the heart of Tres Dias

During the Weekend

- Give service support during the Weekend to his/her family
- Ensure your candidate's family knows how to contact you or camp for emergencies
- Attend Serenade and encourage other community members to attend

- Make sure your candidate leaves weekend with all his/her belongings
- Escort your candidate home after the Weekend

After the Weekend

- Continue to pray for your candidate
- Help your candidate get involved in a Reunion Group
- Bring your candidate to Secuela
- Encourage your candidate to sponsor others
- Seek ways to help your candidate grow in his/her Christian walk
- Follow up with your candidate for at least a year
